PEQUOT MANOR OPENING Proves a Success in Every Respect-Big Patronage All Week.

Excellent patronage continues at Pequot Manor, where on the opening night there was an assemblage of 125 guests in the dining room. Manager G. W. Blanchard received innumerable congratulations upon the successful manner in which he carried out the program of the day. It was a brilliant representation of society and from 7.30, when dinner was served, until 1 a. m. enjoyment was genuine when dinner was served, until 1 a. m. enjoyment was genuine.

Pinto's New York orchestra furnished delightful music, while an added attraction was that afforded by the Strolling Venetian Players in operatic and popular selections. Both organizations will be retained in service and will contribute largely to the enjoyment of the guests.

The new dance floor was pronounced perfect and was liberally patronized.
The grill room was kept constantly busy.

Single rooms and suites are now ready for occupancy and are being rapidly engaged, and the future prosperity of Pequot Manor, judging from its exceedingly successful opening.

FALL IN!

By Harold Begbie

WHAT will you lack, sonny, what will you lack When the girls line up the street Shouting their love to the lads come back From the foe they rushed to beat? Will you send a strangled cheer to the sky And grin till your cheeks are red? But what will you lack when your mate goes by

Where will you look, sonny, where will you look When your children yet to be Clamor to learn of the part you took In the war that kept men free? Will you say it was naught to you if France Stood up to her foe or bunked?

But where will you look when they give the glance

With a girl who cuts you dead?

That tells you they know you funked? How will you fare, sonny, how will you fare In the far-off winter night, When you sit by the fire in an old man's chair And your neighbors talk of the fight?

Will you slink away, as it were from a blow. Your old head shamed and bent? Or say-"I was not with the first to go, But I went, thank God, I went"?

Why do they call, sonny, why do they call For the men who are brave and strong? Is it naught to you if your country fall, And Right is smashed by Wrong? Is it football still and the picture-show, The bar and the betting odds, When your brothers stand to the tyrant's blow

And country's call is God's?
